

Implantology Fellowship

Overview

Oral implantology is a one-year fellowship course offered by VSPM's dental college & research center, Nagpur. The program comprises of lectures, demonstrations of basic and advanced procedures in oral implantology. It mandatory that each candidate places implants on patients and restores the same in the program in order to be certified. The eminent staff member in the department of periodontics, prosthodontics and oral & maxillofacial surgery offer their services toward the completion of the fellowship course.

Duration

1 year (10 modules and each module for 02 days)

Affiliation

This course is affiliated to Maharashtra University of health sciences, Nashik.

Intake capacity

The intake capacity of the fellowship is 10 seats. The selection process is based on merit criteria as per the centralized admission process.

