

ADVANCES IN PREVENTIVE DENTISTRY

Course Information:

In recent years, preventive dentistry has undergone remarkable advancements, revolutionizing the way we approach oral care. From cutting-edge technologies to innovative treatment strategies, these developments empower both patients and dental professionals to prioritize prevention over intervention.

Course objective:

The objective of the module on Advances in Preventive Dentistry is to empower dental professionals with the knowledge, skills, and resources necessary to deliver high-quality preventive care and promote oral health within their communities.

Participants/ Audience:

Interns

Course Duration : 30 hours
3 modules of 2 days (5 hours each day)

Tentative Month: May/June

Course Content:

Module 1

- Sealants and Preventive Resin Restorations
- Diet and Nutrition in Oral Health
- Advances in Diagnostic Technologies

Module 2

- Periodontal Disease Prevention
- Salivary Diagnostics
- Genetics and Preventive Dentistry
- Teledentistry and Preventive Care

Module 3

- Biomaterials in Preventive Dentistry
- Pediatric Preventive Dentistry
- Geriatric Preventive Dentistry
- Research Trends in Preventive Dentistry
- Case Studies in Preventive Dentistry
- Fluoride in Preventive Dentistry
- Tobacco Cessation in Dentistry
- Tentative date/month: during internship period of interns